Come join us at the newly renovated Dennis Senior Center for an Intergenerational Music Program designed to spark joy!

Families and seniors will partner together with leader Mary Wilson for a program that celebrates music and movement with young children and their senior friends using a developmental approach.

Fun activities use a variety of props, old and new songs and instruments to engage you and your child, creating an inclusive intergenerational community!

Registration is required.

Please call Cape Cod Children's Place at 508-240-3310 today, space is limited!
